The Decorators and Painters' Strike Unchanged

POSITION OF THE MASTERS

They Issue Notice That They Will Hire Only Under Certain Conditions, Which Are Stated.

The union decorators and paper hangers did not report for duty yester-day morning, as they had gone out on a strike in compliance with their au-nouncement made on Saturday. The master house painters and decorators held a meeting April 28, and in reply to a circular received from the jour-neymen stating they would refuse to conger work with non-union men, adopted the following resolutions. They were not presented to the union intil last evening waiting the action of the union men yesterday. Names of all the prominent firms in the city

GRAND RAPIDS, April 28, 1892. At a meeting of the master house painters and decorators of the city of Grand Rapids held on the evening of April 25 the following resolutions were unanimously adopted: Greeting to all painters and decora-

ters-We, the undersigned members of ine above association, hereby give no-tice that on and after May 2 we shall claim and positively assert our right to supley any help we may consider competent to perform our work, whether the same are non-inion or union men. The question of non-union or union men will not in any way govern our methods of doing business and we positively refuse to be dictated to:

D. G. Hanry, C. M. D. M. D

D. G. Henry, O. M. Dunham, Miller & Middeton, A. F. Burch, Fred J. Blymeir, Starr Etheridge, Wileman & Fanner, Van Opstal & Foot, Harvey & Heystek, C. A. Goobel, A. H. Fowle, Valley City Wallpaper company, Rys-kamp Bros., D. W. Gallup, John Emery, P. J. Lang & Co. It is estimated that about one-half of

the worknien are union men. The non-union men are at work as usual, and firms have begun advertising for competent painters without reference to their membership in the union. Both sides are determined to maintain the position which they have taken and the strike will probably be of continged duration.

MASTERS SHOW FIGHT.

They Present an Ultimatum to the Strikers.

The Master Painters and Decorators resociation held another meeting last svening in Wilsman & Tanner's store on South Division street, which was atiended by nearly every dealer in the nity. After the transaction of routine business, matters pertaining to the strake were discussed. A half-dozen new names were added to the list of nembership in the association and all appeared to be in favor of maintaining their position as expressed in the reso-jutions adopted April 28. Upon mo-fion each employer was instructed to Iurnish Secretary Wileman a list of the men who have gone out on the strike. The following resolution was also

Resolved by the Master Painters and that the members of said association will not until the strike now being conwill not until the strike now being con-ducted by the painters' union is de-slared off, employ any man who has been employed by any of the members of this association up to the time of the strike without a written recommenda-tion from his former employer, and that said members will employ compe-tent workenen whether union or non-moran upon the condition above set enion upon the condition above set which he was wont to be greeted by the press gapg, and enveloped himself in Fours et al.; chancery. Decree dismisswhich he was wont to be greeted by the press gang, and enveloped himself in the more dignified Mr. Clark-of-the-Police-Court. Not content with the atle alone, and wishing to even more foreibly impress his individuality upon his ancient hungry and familiar press acquaintances, he hid his manly bosom behind a fragrans button-hole bouquet. Even this was insufficient, and on entering police court the perfume from a huge bouquet, placed upon his honor's desk, for a brief hour purified the court room of its ancient and accustomed smell. Last, but by no means least, he gracefully evidenced the appreciation in which he held his press friends by fastening over the heart of each as he entered a beautiful fouton-ler. Thanks, Steve. Your past courter. Thanks, Steve. Your past cour-lesses will dwell with us in kindly re-membrance long after the flowers have wasted their fragrance and shed their

Strayed From His Home.

Yesterday afternoon about 3:30 an officer walked into the police station bearing in his arms little brown-eyed Lerey Cable. It seems the little fellow Lerey Cable. It seems the little fellow had started upon a little excursion "all by him own self," after getting a short distance thought it would be more plassant to have his mamma with him, but having forgotten the way home he could only cry for assistance in this his new and strange dilemma. About 5 p'clock his mamma learned of her little man's whereabouts, and came and took him from the kindly care of the police protection to his own home, No. 135 Lyon street.

Warrant Issued for Warner. At 4 o'clock yesterday Clerk Stevens At 4 o'clock yesterday Clerk Stevens settled a warrant for Alonso Warner, who had been apprehended at and brought back from Lansing by Deputy Speriff Leonard. This is the man who from Mr. Colleton's team to Lansing and disposed of the horses and reg for the partry sum of $70 cash and $15 worth of trape to a couple of shorks. Proceedings will be commenced against the purchasers of the team, who now effect to deliver them to their rightful trape.

The mother and Gusta occupy the second story of the house while the brother and his family live on the ground floor. When the detective arrived he found the girl asleep, and the habitation seemed to be an abode of peace. It is thought the affair will not prove to be more senous than a family quarrel.

> Three Ordinary Drunks. The morning session of the police court was very quiet, only three ordinary drunks, the result of Saturday evening sprees, appeared before his honor in the morning. They had been given time in which to sober up, and with much bumbleness received the with much humbleness received the usual $2 and costs. As they had all forgotten their pocket books, or imbied more liberally and expensively than intended, his honor thought a brief respite from the cares of life would be beneficial to their health, so he committed them for lifteen days.
